

"Four young men from Bayonne in matching sports jackets whose cover band project from 2018 morphed into one of the most ear-catching and different acts on the local scene." – Jim Testa, The Jersey Journal

"Their melodies and harmonies are like sunrays enhancing my mood." – Lazlo, BlowUpRadio.com for New Jersey Stage

"Great show and please thank the whole gang." – Lee Frankel (Owner: The Crossroads in Garwood)

BreakTime is a Bayonne, New Jersey-based tribute-and-originals four-piece covering the best of the 1960s British Invasion and its American counterparts. Taking inspiration from their tribute repertoire, BreakTime write their own 60s-reminiscent original material.

The band has received acclaim by virtue of their Summer 2023 album Specials contending for two GRAMMYS (Pop Performance; Engineering). Singles from the album entitled "She's The One" and "Love and Harmony" earned BreakTime the distinction of being the only act to have double selections to the Jersey Journal's Top 10 Hudson County Singles of 2023. Accolades continued to abound in 2025 as the band's intoxicating, energetic live show brought them a first place win at the Freehold Borough Arts Council Battle of The Bands alongside a second place win at the Carteret Battle of The Bands.

Their "Sixties Dance Party Spectacular" show delivers beloved chart-toppers that make audiences groove their way back to the sixties. BreakTime's a Great Time!
