

BREAK TIME

"Their melodies and harmonies are like sunrays enhancing my mood." – Lazlo, BlowUpRadio.com for New Jersey Stage

"A refreshing dose of pop/rock selections and impressive delivery of the same!" – Robert O'Donnell (Director: "Cranstock" Festival)

"We'll have them back anytime." – Lee Frankel (Owner: The Crossroads in Garwood)

BreakTime is a New Jersey originals-and-covers band that champions an upbeat, optimistic pop rock style with generous vintage flair. The band's repertoire extends over 60 years, including nods to artists from Chuck Berry to The Black Keys. Taking inspiration from their cover repertoire's breadth, BreakTime makes original exploits into rock 'n' roll, sixties pop, surf rock, hard rock, and folk.

Fans propelled the band's Winter 2022 single release, the power pop track "Maybe No, Maybe Yes," to over 10,000 streams. True to their genre-hopping habits, BreakTime's summer EP Specials features such lead single exploits as the surf rock "Motor City Mama," the folk-jangle "Love And Harmony," and the merseybeat number "She's The One." The EP was submitted to the Recording Academy for 2024 Grammy consideration. The points of BreakTime's consistency: thickly-stacked harmonies and catchy vintage melodies.

With their technical skill, showmanship, and willingness to unabashedly blend sonic palettes, BreakTime promises and delivers a memorable experience.
